

GENEALOGY
WILLIAM WALLACE BERRYHILL, JR

INDEX SYSTEM

The index is based on joint use of PEDIGREE CHARTS and FAMILY SHEETS. Individuals are indexed under their MAIDEN surname and their MARRIED surname.

To find an individual in this record, look up their name in the index to determine their INDEX NUMBER, which consists of Pedigree Chart #/ person # on Family Sheet.

Example: to find Charles Price Berryhill - 2/2:3:1, turn to Pedigree chart #2, thence to Family sheet 2/2:3:1. The person numbers indicate that Charles is the grandson of person #2 on Pedigree Chart #2; and is the first child of his grandfather's third child.

PEDIGREE CHARTS

The pedigree charts are the KEY to indexing system. The first number of the Index number is the pedigree chart on or under which an individual appears. The chart number is followed by a slash (/) separating the chart # from the person#. The number(s) following the slash is the specific and exclusive number for a specific person. Colons (:) are used in the "specific" numbers to separate each succeeding generation of the ancestor listed on the pedigree chart. Multiple marriages are denoted as "B" for the second, "C" for the third, e.g. 2/2B:1:1B.

The pedigree charts show continuation numbers to succeeding charts. The persons continued on other charts as #1 (child) will therefore have three Index numbers. Their descendants will be listed under the first pedigree chart on which they appear, i.e. Index #.

FAMILY SHEETS

The family sheets list specific information for each family with children listed in order of birth (if known). The back side of the sheets are used to expand information and biographical data. Sheets are included for collateral lines - families belonging to the same ancestral stock, but not in this specific direct line of descent. The spouse of collateral persons are indexed with the same number as their husband or wife, and appear on the same family sheet.

NOTATIONS

- * Persons with no middle name or initial are noted (NMI)
- * Nicknames are noted "Pete"-where they are not common usage, e.g. Walter "Pete"
- * If a given name is abandoned for another, it is noted as e.g. Walter (adopted name Peter)
- * Persons with middle initial only are noted (MI)
- * Abbreviations: ca-about; ae-of age; (sic)-copied verbatim
